Teamwork: What Must Go Right/What Can Go Wrong by Carl Larson

Teamwork is the collaborative effort of a group to achieve a common goal or to complete a task in the most effective and efficient way. This concept is seen within the greater framework of a team, which is a group of interdependent individuals who work together towards a common goal. Basic requirements for effective teamwork are an adequate team size. The context is important, and team sizes ...

Teamwork: What Must Go Right/What Can Go Wrong (1989) by Carl E. Larson and Frank M.J. LaFasto was recommended by Fr. Ron Nuzzi and I'll pass on the recommendation with enthusiasm. The book is based in the premise that if members from successful teams were interviewed, perhaps a profile of successful teams could be constructed.
