Guilty by Karen Robards is a great edgy romantic suspense novel. Tom, a homicide detective and Kate, a prosecutor, were great characters, I enjoyed the relationship between them and their story kept me intrigued for the duration of the book. I loved Kate's 9 year old son, Ben, a clever and interesting little man.

Karen Robards latest novel is the best one in quite a while. Her last two novels have been some of her worst, but this one had all of her trademarks in it. I really enjoyed it and am thankful she has finally gotten her act back together. When you pay for a hardback you expect to get your money's worth.
